The City and County of Honolulu is reopening the Rental and Utility Relief Program for the next round of 4,000 applications on Monday, May 3, at 2 p.m.

The Rental and Utility Relief Program is a major part of the City and County of Honolulu's plan to help struggling people get back on their feet. Depending on a person's situation, the program can pay for rent and utility bills going back to March 2020, current bills, and future bills.

Have you taken our 2021 Survey?

We want to hear from you!

We are updating our records and would like to know how 2021 has been so far! The number one concern for 2020 was getting back to work, and now that the islands are slowly opening up, are you seeing any improvement?

Do you have any suggestions, recommendations or concerns? We do want to hear from you. The Henry Kapon Foundation continues to look for ways to help the industry get back to business and your feedback is important to us!

Ways To Support

Together We Can Make A Difference

-----

The Henry Kapon Foundation is excited to announce that we are now a registered charitable organization with Amazon Smile!

*“Aloha,
2020 took us all by surprise leaving us all in shock. The Henry Kapon Foundation recognized the effect this would have on Hawaii’s music community and took immediate action. Thanks to you and the support of many others we were able to contribute to the sustainability of Hawaii’s Music Community. I would like you to know how much you are appreciated, not just by myself, the HKF and especially Hawaii’s Music Community.”*
